

ENSA Elderly and Disability Working Group, Coordinators Anthony Polychronakis, city of Rotterdam and Miljana Dejanovic Conseil Départemental du Val de Marne

Tuesday 25th January 2022 10:00-12:00

Quality of life: post Covid challenges and opportunities for seniors, professionals and persons with disabilities

The objective of this session will be to exchange on how to build accessible local health and social services integrated in the communities, including multidimensional care approaches. A focus will be made by the Conseil Départemental du Val de Marne on the future care professions and employment opportunities.

10:00	Introduction by Anthony Polychronakis , city of Rotterdam. Coordinator ENSA Elderly Working Group, and Miljana Dejanovic Conseil Départemental du Val de Marne Welcoming remarks
10:10	The impact of Covid 19 on the senior population: Dr Anis Ben Brik , associate professor and founding director Program for Social Policy Evaluation and Research (PROSPER), College of Public Policy, Hamad Bin Khalifa University (HBKU). Former director Family Policy Department, Doha International Family Institute
10:25	Telecare Services for Senior in the Kujawsko-Pomorskie Region: Mr Jarosław Boryń , Chairman of the Board of Connectio / Kujawsko-Pomorskie Digital Competence Center
10:40	Developing responses to Covid 19 pandemic on fragile seniors: towards a Hybrid home care model - I.S.R.A.A. Treviso, Faber Coordinator Oscar Zanutto
10:50	Erasmus+ Projects in the field of disability: SELF-IN A self-management learning model to foster the independence of people with intellectual disabilities: María Sorzano Castellón , European Project Manager, Valencian Institute of Social Services (IVASS). MOVE-IT Development of a training program for improving physical exercise of people with intellectual disabilities through exergames and technology: Jose Manuel Gil Guzmán , European Project Officer, Valencian Institute of Social Services (IVASS)
11:00	Discussion, Q&A
11:10	Autonomy professions platform : Conseil Départemental du Val de Marne
11:20	Project skills and qualification training campus: Evelyne Faury , Operational Director of the Campus des métiers et des qualifications « Santé, Autonomie et Bien vieillir », University Paris Est Créteil France
11:30	Empowerment of persons with visual impairments: Anna - Maria Foskolou , AROGI -Association of blind people of Cyclades, Miltos Sakellariou – Rare diseases: social inclusion and learning empowerment, Giulia Volpato , Vice-President Associazione P63 Sidrome EEC International

11:45	Council of Europe, Committee on Environment and Health Crisis, President Anne-Marie Chavanon and Dr. Jozsef Gabanyi , Geriatrician physician tbc
12:00	Q&A , Concluding Remarks and future steps, Anthony Polychronakis , Miljana Dejanovic
12:15	End of meeting

We are looking for practices focusing on inclusion and quality of life to fight loneliness and to improve the network of services to the citizens, including patients suffering from chronic and disabling diseases strengthening the territorial scope of care. Furthermore, experiences in the field of training future carers in a post pandemic situation would be highly appreciated. EU and international project opportunities will be built.